IV. Citizen Comments

Alfred Villareal spoke on behalf of Veterans. Combat Veteran, in his time saw and what he saw during his time. He is PISD alumni. His children are and go to school here and his grandchildren. Spoke when he came back out of the service he didn't really have the connection with people and he didn't know how to come back to the real world. and it wasn't until he go with veterans, you are able to connect. If you never served you will never understand to call brothers this way. We are siblings. We served together as the USA. What is being proposed or considered is a beautiful thing. It is hard for us to share who we really are. We might of known you for a long time but we aren't able to connect the way we are with other veterans. It doesn't mean you don't understand us. its just that veterans can connect. If we are able to share one house works great. We are asking for y'all to considerate because it is a good thing.
