5.1.3. ACTION ON CLOSED MEETING MINUTES

Under the Open Meetings Act, it is necessary to review the minutes of past Board of Trustees closed meetings to determine the need for continued confidentiality of minutes.

The College's designee has reviewed the closed session minutes and has determined the need for confidentiality still exists as to the closed session minutes for the period from July 2022 through November 2022.

Recommendation: Determine that the closed session minutes from July 2022 through November 2022, and prior to these dates (unless released through Board action), require confidential treatment and should not be released for public inspection.

5. CONSENT AGENDA 1. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

5.1.5. ACTION ON CLOSED MEETING RECORDINGS

The Open Meetings Act authorizes the destruction of verbatim recordings of closed meetings no sooner than 18 months after the completion of the meeting recorded. Written minutes of these meetings are retained in compliance with the Open Meetings Act.

The following is a list of closed meeting recordings that are recommended for destruction:

February 22, 2021	Regular
March 16, 2021	Regular
April 6, 2021	Committee of the Whole
April 27, 2021	Regular

Recommendation: Authorize the destruction of the verbatim recordings listed above.

Operating Funds

Financial Highlights

REVENUE: The revenues in the operating funds reflect 58.4 percent of budgeted revenues through November 2022. At the end of November 2021, the College had received 52.3 percent of the amount budgeted.

As of November 30, 2022, the College had received revenues equal to $41.5 million in Fiscal Year 2023 for local taxes. Local tax revenue is budgeted at $77.4 million for Fiscal Year 2023.

Also, as of November 30, 2022, student enrollment reflected 74.4 percent of the tuition revenue. At the end of November 2022, the College had received 71.6 percent of the amount budgeted. The timing of when students enroll impacts when tuition revenue is recorded. Comprehensive fees are initially recorded in the Education Fund. The adjustment to move the majority of these fees to other funds.

EXPENDITURES: The expenditures in the operating funds as of November 30, 2022, reflect 36.2 percent of budgeted expenditures for the year. In comparison, as of November 30, 2021, the College had expended 33.9 percent of the amount budgeted. The College is trending on track with the FY 2023 budget plan.

INVESTMENTS: November saw Treasury yields falling as the Federal Reserve signaled a slowdown in the pace of tightening as early as December while indicating more hikes to fight inflation. The Bloomberg U.S. Aggregate Index (Aggregate) gained 3.68 percent in November. As a whole, investment-grade (IG) credit returned 4.97 percent, AAA-rated bonds returned 2.41 percent, AA-rated bonds returned 4.85 percent, A-rated bonds returned 4.98 percent and BBB-rated bonds returned 5.41 percent.

management of the college. College Policies specific to the Board of Trustees are contained in Sections 100 and 900 of the Policy Manual.

~~6. Trustees commit to prepare for and attend scheduled meetings, prepare for meetings through review of materials provided, and follow established board communication protocols established by the board and president for requests for information or clarification ahead of meetings to allow for informed and timely decisions. Trustees should commit to referring contacts from employees, students and community residents to the board chair or president so that an appropriate administrator with knowledge of the subject or the contact can follow up or respond accordingly, as individual trustees are not involved in the day-to-day operations of the college. Trustees will follow all college policies.~~

~~7. Trustees recognize that they are not involved in the day-to-day operations of the College and that individual trustees have no legal authority to commit the College in any way (Policy 118). For these reasons, trustees should commit to referring contacts from employees, students and community residents to the board chair or president so that an appropriate administrator with knowledge of the subject or the contact can follow up or respond accordingly, as individual trustees are not involved in the day-to-day operations of the college. Trustees will follow all college policies.~~

~~5. The board derives authority from and is accountable to the community as a whole. Trustees are responsible to the well-being of the entire community. Trustees will not use their position to benefit themselves, family members, associates, or personal interests.~~

~~6. The board and the president work in partnership to pursue shared purpose and establish strategic priorities, establish mutual and clear expectations, demonstrate trust and support, establish and follow agreed-upon communication protocols, and publicly support each other. Trustees promote a healthy working relationship with the president through timely, respectful, open and honest communication. Trustees refer contacts from employees, students and community residents to the president.~~

~~78. The board is focused on its policy-making function which guides how administration of the eCollege (Policy 105) shall be administered. Authority for the aAdministration of policy, programs, services, implementation of board actions and conducting college business and operations is delegated to the college president (Policy 118). Trustees respect this delegation of authority to the president.~~
